

The New York Public Library
Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle

Guide to the

Verses addressed to Lord Byron [manuscript copy]

1816?

Pforz Ms

Summary

Title: Verses addressed to Lord Byron [manuscript copy]

Date: 1816?

Size: 1 page (single sheet)

Abstract: Manuscript fair copy, in an unidentified hand, of the twenty-seven line poem [first?] published in the Morning Post [London] on 20 April 1816; begins, "The Daughter of a Royal Line / Shall weep for hearts perverse as thine ..."; here signed [?J.D.] in the lower right corner; mounted on an excised album sheet, with four hand-colored etchings mounted on the verso, cut out from a copy of William Heath's Studies From the Stage.

Preferred citation: Verses addressed to Lord Byron [manuscript copy], Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle, The New York Public Library

Scope and Content Note

Manuscript fair copy, in an unidentified hand, of the twenty-seven line poem [first?] published in the Morning Post [London] on 20 April 1816; begins, "The Daughter of a Royal Line / Shall weep for hearts perverse as thine ..."; here signed [?J.D.] in the lower right corner; mounted on an excised album sheet, with four hand-colored etchings mounted on the verso, cut out from a copy of William Heath's Studies From the Stage.

Key Terms

Subjects

English poetry -- 19th century -- Manuscripts -- Specimens

Names

Byron, George Gordon Byron, Baron, 1788-1824

Charlotte Augusta, Princess of Great Britain, 1796-1817

Heath, William, 1795-1840