

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Warren G. Harding letters to George H. Van Fleet

1916-1920

MssCol 1312

Summary

Creator: Harding, Warren G. (Warren Gamaliel), 1865-1923

Title: Warren G. Harding letters to George H. Van Fleet

Date: 1916-1920

Size: 1 folder

Abstract: Warren G. Harding was the owner and George H. Van Fleet was the manager of the Marion, Ohio newspaper, The Star. Approximately eighty typewritten letters from Warren G. Harding to George H. Van Fleet relating to executive policy and details in the publication of the newspaper. Issues discussed include shortage and cost of paper, composition, promptness in going to press, economy measures, care of machinery, personnel problems, etc. Also, a few comments on current events, daylight savings time, Harding's nomination for presidency.

Preferred citation: Warren G. Harding letters to George H. Van Fleet, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Warren G. Harding was the owner and George H. Van Fleet was the manager of the Marion, Ohio newspaper, The Star.

Scope and Content Note

Approximately eighty typewritten letters from Warren G. Harding to George H. Van Fleet relating to executive policy and details in the publication of the newspaper. Issues discussed include shortage and cost of paper, composition, promptness in going to press, economy measures, care of machinery, personnel problems, etc. Also, a few comments on current events, daylight savings time, Harding's nomination for presidency.

Key Terms

Subjects

Newspaper publishing -- Ohio -- Marion

Names

Harding, Warren G. (Warren Gamaliel), 1865-1923

Van Fleet, George H