

The New York Public Library Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Argument in the case of the brig John 1807?

MssCol 17891

Summary

Creator: Hunter, William

Title: Argument in the case of the brig John

Date: 1807?

Size: 1 v

Abstract: William Hunter was an attorney. The brig John, Richard Barker, master, sailed from Charleston 18 June [1807?] for Cádiz, Spain, a blockaded port. The brig was seized by a British squadron under the command of Sir Richard Bickerton, and subsequently condemned as a prize by the British Admiralty Court. William Hunter's draft argument as attorney for insurance underwriters, in an appeal by the owners of the Brig John. Hunter argued that the underwriters were exonerated from liability because the ship's master attempted to run the blockade after due warning.

Preferred citation: Argument in the case of the brig John, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

William Hunter was an attorney. The brig John, Richard Barker, master, sailed from Charleston 18 June [1807?] for Cádiz, Spain, a blockaded port. The brig was seized by a British squadron under the command of Sir Richard Bickerton, and subsequently condemned as a prize by the British Admiralty Court.

Scope and Content Note

William Hunter's draft argument as attorney for insurance underwriters, in an appeal by the owners of the Brig John. Hunter argued that the underwriters were exonerated from liability because the ship's master attempted to run the blockade after due warning.

Key Terms

Occupations

Lawyers

Subjects

Marine insurance

Napoleonic Wars, 1800-1815 -- Prizes

War, Maritime (International law)

Names

Hunter, William

John (Ship)