

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Exemplification of the laws of New York relating to the powers of the Commissioners of Forfeitures

1787

MssCol 2175

Summary

Creator: Commissioners of Forfeitures

Title: Exemplification of the laws of New York relating to the powers of the Commissioners of Forfeitures

Date: 1787

Size: .21 linear feet (1 volume)

Abstract: This document is entitled "Exemplification of the laws of New York relating to the powers of the Commissioners of Forfeitures respecting the sale or transfer of confiscated estates during the American Revolution" (May 21, 1787). The item is signed by Governor George Clinton and attested by Department Secretary Robert Harper. After the American Revolution, the Commissioners of Forfeitures sold the confiscated land and property of loyalists to pay off New York State's war debts

Preferred citation: Exemplification of the laws of New York relating to the powers of the Commissioners of Forfeitures, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Subjects

American loyalists

Geographic Names

New York (State) -- History -- Revolution, 1775-1783

Names

Commissioners of Forfeitures

Clinton, George, 1739-1812