

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Schlaraffen Stammtisch register

1911-1914

MssCol 23094

Summary

Creator: Schlaraffia Nova Yorkia

Title: Schlaraffen Stammtisch register

Date: 1911-1914

Size: .1 linear feet (1 volume)

Abstract: The Schlaraffia was a German émigré social club, founded in Prague in 1859 and focused on the arts and humor. The Schlaraffen Stammtisch register dates from 1911 through 1914 and details the membership and meeting attendance of the New York City chapter of Schlaraffia. The register is organized by meeting date and contains signatures, many of which are pseudonyms; decorative lettering; drawings of owls; and short inscriptions in German. The register documents the social circle of prominent German-American immigrants, such as August Lüchow, living in New York City in the early 20th century

Physical Location: MssCol 23094

Preferred citation: Schlaraffen Stammtisch register, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Subjects

German Americans -- New York (State) -- New York
German Americans -- Societies, etc
Germans -- United States

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Registers (lists)

Names

Schlaraffia (Organization)