

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Ezra Pound letters to William E. Woodward

1933-1937

MssCol 2479

Summary

Creator: Pound, Ezra, 1885-1972

Title: Ezra Pound letters to William E. Woodward

Date: 1933-1937

Size: .15 linear feet (1 v.)

Source: Purchase, Baker & Brooke, 1952

Abstract: Ezra Pound (1885-1972) was an American poet, critic and editor. Collection consists of letters Pound wrote to William E. Woodward from Italy during the 1930s. In the letters Pound compares the Anglo/American and Italian political systems and refers to Mussolini and recent triumphs of the Fascists. The primary subject is Pound's ideas on monetary reform and social credit.

Alternative Form Available: Letters available on microfilm; New York Public Library

Preferred citation: Ezra Pound letters to William E. Woodward, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Ezra Pound (1885-1972) was an American poet, critic and editor.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of letters Pound wrote to William E. Woodward from Italy during the 1930s. In the letters Pound compares the Anglo/American and Italian political systems and refers to Mussolini and recent triumphs of the Fascists. The primary subject is Pound's ideas on monetary reform and social credit.

Key Terms

Subjects

Credit

Fascism -- Italy

Monetary reform

Geographic Names

Italy -- Politics and government -- 1922-1945

Names

Pound, Ezra, 1885-1972

Mussolini, Benito, 1883-1945

Woodward, William E., 1847-1930