

The New York Public Library Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Mathew Brady registers

1863-1865

MssCol 3494

Summary

Creator: Brady, Mathew B., 1823 (ca.)-1896

Title: Mathew Brady registers

Date: 1863-1865

Size: .3 linear feet (2 v.); 1 microfilm reel

Abstract: Mathew B. Brady (ca. 1823-1896) was among the most prominent of early photographers in the U.S. During the Civil War, he and his assistants went into the field to photograph Union troops and battles. Brady maintained studios in New York City and Washington, D.C. Registers of Mathew B. Brady pertain to business at his New York City studio and contain the names and addresses of the sitters, number and types of photographs taken, price and negative numbers, and other remarks. Registers include signatures of a number of persons prominent in New York history.

Conditions Governing Access:

Readers will be given microfilm. To view original volumes, readers must obtain permission of the curator.

Alternative Form Available: Collection available on microfilm; New York Public Library

Preferred citation: Mathew Brady registers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Mathew B. Brady (ca. 1823-1896) was among the most prominent of early photographers in the U.S. During the Civil War, he and his assistants went into the field to photograph Union troops and battles. Brady maintained studios in New York City and Washington, D.C.

Scope and Content Note

Registers of Mathew B. Brady pertain to business at his New York City studio and contain the names and addresses of the sitters, number and types of photographs taken, price and negative numbers, and other remarks. Registers include signatures of a number of persons prominent in New York history.

Key Terms

Occupations

Photographers

Subjects

Portrait photography

Names

Brady, Mathew B., 1823 (ca.)-1896