

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Papers relating to an accident involving Albert L. Diebolt

1929

MssCol 4344

Summary

Creator: Paltsits, Victor Hugo, 1867-1952

Title: Papers relating to an accident involving Albert L. Diebolt

Date: 1929

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Abstract: Dr. Victor Hugo Paltsits (1867-1952), archivist and librarian, was head of the Manuscripts Division of the New York Public Library from 1895-1941. Albert L. Diebolt was an instructor at the State Normal School of Plattsburgh, New York, who was involved in a deadly automobile collision with a truck belonging to the United States Army. The papers consist of correspondence with Dr. Paltsits and others, briefs, and clippings documenting the effort on behalf of Albert Diebolt to secure a settlement from the United States government following the accident which seriously injured Diebolt and his elder son, and killed Diebolt's wife and younger son

Physical Location: MssCol 4344

Preferred citation: Papers relating to an accident involving Albert L. Diebolt, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Subjects

Drinking and traffic accidents

Soldiers -- Alcohol use -- United States

Names

Paltsits, Victor Hugo, 1867-1952

Diebolt, Albert L.

United States. Army