

The New York Public Library Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Benjamin Drake correspondence

1827-1852

MssCol 4350

Summary

Creator: Drake, Benjamin, 1794-1841

Title: Benjamin Drake correspondence

Date: 1827-1852

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Abstract: Benjamin Drake (1805-1871) was a physician in New York City in the early 19th century. After graduating from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, he continued his studies in Europe before returning to New York to establish a practice. Drake held offices with the Medical Society of the County of New York, the New York State Medical Society, and the New York Academy of Medicine. The correspondence consists of letters by and to Drake relating to his medical practice, politics, and other matters. Included are letters describing his 1827 trip to Liverpool, England, and its environs

Physical Location: MssCol 4350

Preferred citation: Benjamin Drake correspondence, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Custodial History

This material was originally received as part of the Ford collection.

Key Terms

Geographic Names

Liverpool (England) -- Description and travel -- 19th century

Occupations

Physicians

Subjects

Physicians -- Correspondence
Physicians -- New York (State) -- New York

Names

Drake, Benjamin, 1794-1841
Drake, Benjamin, 1794-1841
Ford collection