

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee records

1973-1986

MssCol 540

Summary

Creator: Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee

Title: Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee records

Date: 1973-1986

Size: .4 linear feet (1 box)

Abstract: The Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee, formed in 1970 with the purpose of planning an event for the anniversary of the Stonewall Riots, effectively invented the gay pride march. The Committee continued planning gay pride events through 1984. The Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee records primarily consist of organizational correspondence and minutes of meetings spanning the years 1977-1982, reflecting the Committee's relationship to city officials and other civic organizations.

Preferred citation: Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee records, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Scope and Content Note

The Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee, formed in 1970 with the purpose of planning an event for the anniversary of the Stonewall Riots, effectively invented the gay pride march. The Committee continued planning gay pride events through 1984. The Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee records primarily consist of organizational correspondence and minutes of meetings spanning the years 1977-1982, reflecting the Committee's relationship to city officials and other civic organizations.

Key Terms

Subjects

Gay pride parades -- New York (State) -- New York
Stonewall Riots, New York, N.Y., 1969 -- Anniversaries, etc

Names

Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee