

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Henry I. Escher papers

ca. 1896

MssCol 943

Summary

Creator: Escher, Henry I

Title: Henry I. Escher papers

Date: ca. 1896

Size: .5 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Transfer, American History Division, 1958

Abstract: Henry I. Escher was president of the Swiss Benevolent Society in 1868. The Society was officially founded in New York City in 1846 to provide aid for Swiss immigrants to the U.S. Collection consists of unpublished manuscript by Escher on the history of the Swiss people and their interest in charitable organizations. Also, four volumes of name indexes of members of the Swiss Benevolent Society.

Conditions Governing Use: Volumes may be reproduced by microfilm or photograph only

Preferred citation: Henry I. Escher papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Henry I. Escher was president of the Swiss Benevolent Society in 1868. The Society was officially founded in New York City in 1846 to provide aid for Swiss immigrants to the U.S.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of unpublished manuscript by Escher on the history of the Swiss people and their interest in charitable organizations. Also, four volumes of name indexes of members of the Swiss Benevolent Society.

Key Terms

Subjects

Charities -- New York (State) -- New York

Swiss -- Charities

Swiss -- History

Swiss -- United States -- Societies, etc

Swiss Americans

Names

Escher, Henry I

Swiss Benevolent Society of New York