

The New York Public Library Music Division

Guide to the

Correspondence and bills from J. Sabin & Sons

1877-1878

JPB 91-107

Summary

Creator: Drexel, Joseph W. (Joseph William), 1833-1888

Title: Correspondence and bills from J. Sabin & Sons

Date: 1877-1878

Size: 33 items

Abstract: An American banker and philanthropist, Joseph Drexel collected an extensive library of music, including manuscripts and autographs. The Drexel Collection became the foundation of the Music Division of the New York Public Library. 11 autograph letters, chiefly concerning orders and purchases of music, literature, and art works ; and 22 leaves of itemized bills. Many items are on paper printed: J. Sabin & Sons, Book and Print Sellers, 35, Hart Street, Bloomsbury.

Preferred citation: Correspondence and bills from J. Sabin & Sons, Music Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

An American banker and philanthropist, Joseph Drexel collected an extensive library of music, including manuscripts and autographs. The Drexel Collection became the foundation of the Music Division of the New York Public Library.

Scope and Content Note

11 autograph letters, chiefly concerning orders and purchases of music, literature, and art works ; and 22 leaves of itemized bills. Many items are on paper printed: J. Sabin & Sons, Book and Print Sellers, 35, Hart Street, Bloomsbury.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Bills (financial)
Correspondence

Names

Drexel, Joseph W. (Joseph William), 1833-1888
American Music Collection
J. Sabin & Sons
New York Public Library. Music Division. Drexel Collection