

The New York Public Library
Music Division

Guide to the

Contract : London

1844 Feb. 14

JOB 91-81

Summary

Creator: Costa, Michael, 1808-1884

Title: Contract : London

Date: 1844 Feb. 14

Size: 1 item

Source: Purchase on Kinkeldey fund, Macnutt, Richard, limited, 03/24/81

Abstract: Sir Michael Costa was an Italian-English conductor and composer of operas. On paper headed "Her Majesty's Theatre," Mr. B. Lumley, director of Italian Opera, and Mr. Costa agree to 9 articles, including terms under which Mr. Costa will conduct operas and concerts and under which he will compose and produce a new opera. The manuscript is in ink and is signed only by M. Costa.

Preferred citation: Contract : London, Music Division, The New York Public Library

Language of the Material: In French

Creator History

Sir Michael Costa was an Italian-English conductor and composer of operas.

Scope and Content Note

On paper headed "Her Majesty's Theatre," Mr. B. Lumley, director of Italian Opera, and Mr. Costa agree to 9 articles, including terms under which Mr. Costa will conduct operas and concerts and under which he will compose and produce a new opera. The manuscript is in ink and is signed only by M. Costa.

Key Terms

Names

Costa, Michael, 1808-1884

Lumley, B

Her Majesty's Theatre (London, England)