

The New York Public Library
Music Division

Guide to the

Documents concerning the Metropolitan Opera staging of Franco Vittadini's opera Anima allegra

1922-1923

JOB 07-15

Summary

Creator: Wymetal, William, 1890-1970

Title: Documents concerning the Metropolitan Opera staging of Franco Vittadini's opera Anima allegra

Date: 1922-1923

Size: 14 leaves

Abstract: Franco Vittadini's opera Anima allegra had its United States premiere at the Metropolitan Opera, New York, on February 14, 1923, in a production staged by William Wymetal (then known as Wilhelm von Wymetal). Consists of chiefly handwritten (with two typed) documents relating to the staging and production of Franco Vittadini's opera Anima allegra, by William Wymetal. These include lists of staging cues, costumes, characters, and miscellaneous items. Many leaves refer to pages in the annotated vocal score of Anima allegra, cataloged as JOF 04-4.

Preferred citation: Documents concerning the Metropolitan Opera staging of Franco Vittadini's opera Anima allegra, Music Division, The New York Public Library

Language of the Material: In German and English

Related Materials:

Anima allegra

Creator History

Franco Vittadini's opera Anima allegra had its United States premiere at the Metropolitan Opera, New York, on February 14, 1923, in a production staged by William Wymetal (then known as Wilhelm von Wymetal).

Scope and Content Note

Consists of chiefly handwritten (with two typed) documents relating to the staging and production of Franco Vittadini's opera Anima allegra, by William Wymetal. These include lists of staging cues, costumes, characters, and miscellaneous items. Many leaves refer to pages in the annotated vocal score of Anima allegra, cataloged as JOF 04-4.

Key Terms

Subjects

Opera -- Production and direction

Occupations

Opera producers and directors

Names

Wymetal, William, 1890-1970

Vittadini, Franco, 1884-1948