Creator History

An American pianist and harpsichordist, Paul Jacobs, 1930-1983, specialized in music of the baroque and avant-garde.

Jacobs was the official pianist and harpsichordist of the New York Philharmonic (1962-1974). He studied piano with Ernest Hutcheson, and later taught at the Manhattan School of Music, Mannes College of Music, Berkshire Music Center, and at Brooklyn College.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of nocommercial sound and video recordings collected by the American pianist, Paul Jacobs. The majority of the collection is made up of performances by Paul Jacobs. These recordings include both recitals and unreleased recording session takes.

Jacobs particularly favored the works of American composers such as Elliott Carter, Charles Rosen, Frederic Fzewski, Allen Shaen, Virgil Thomson, Joan Tower, and Stephan Wolpe, all of which are represented in this collection. Concerts held to memorialize his death in 1983 are found in videocassette format, and most concisely illustrate his musical likes, passions and achievements.

The collection also includes two sound recording interviews with Jacobs, from 1976 and from 1983.

Arrangement: The collection is arranged into two series and two sub-series. Series I: Jacobs Materials Sub-series 1: Interviews Sub-series 2: Performances Series II: Other Materials
