Creator History

The Merlin Group, Ltd. was a theatrical marketing and publicity company that was founded in New York City circa 1973 and closed in 1983. It managed publicity for at least 26 Broadway and Off-Broadway productions, including Chicago (1974-1977), The Wiz (1975-1979), King of Hearts (1978), Trick (1979),

The Goodbye People (1979), and the circus Coquelico (1979).

Scope and Content Note

The Merlin Group records, dating from 1967 to 1979, document the publicity work performed by the company for six productions: Chicago (1967, 1974-1977), King of Hearts (1978), Trick (1979), The Goodbye People (1979), Coquelico (1979), and The Wiz (1974-1975). The records hold correspondence, press releases, cast and creator files, photographs, negatives, slides, proof sheets, transparencies, clippings, programs, and handbills. The bulk of the collection consists of files for Chicago, including both the original Broadway production and touring productions. The files for King of Hearts also hold substantial content. Correspondence is composed of memos among Merlin staff and between the production and Merlin offices regarding publicity, advertising, or marketing issues. Photograph files hold actor headshots and production images. Photographs can also be found in Cast and Creator Files. The Chicago cast file for Jerry Orbach contains photographs of Orbach in the 1967 Off-Broadway play Scuba Duba.

The collection holds one audio recording, a cassette tape labeled King of Hearts. Inquiries regarding audio materials in the collection may be directed to the Billy Rose Theatre Division (theatre@nypl.org). Audio materials may be subject to preservation evaluation and migration prior to access.

Arrangement: The records are arranged by production title.
