

The New York Public Library
Billy Rose Theatre Division

Guide to the

Walter Fried papers

1954-1963

*T-Mss 1995-003

Summary

Creator: Fried, Walter, 1906-1975

Title: Walter Fried papers

Date: 1954-1963

Size: 2.5 linear feet. (6 boxes)

Source: Walter Fried papers: Unknown, Unknown

Abstract: Walter Fried was a producer and general manager of Broadway plays. His productions included DEATH OF A SALESMAN, COME BLOW YOUR HORN, MAN OF LA MANCHA, FESTIVAL, LIFE WITH FATHER, MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT and RAISIN IN THE SUN, to name a few. The papers of Walter Fried consist of business correspondence, financial papers and box office statements dealing with his productions from 1954 until 1963. Some productions included are FESTIVAL, MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT and COME BLOW YOUR HORN.

Preferred citation: Walter Fried papers, Billy Rose Theatre Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Walter Fried was a producer and general manager of Broadway plays. His productions included DEATH OF A SALESMAN, COME BLOW YOUR HORN, MAN OF LA MANCHA, FESTIVAL, LIFE WITH FATHER, MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT and RAISIN IN THE SUN, to name a few.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of Walter Fried consist of business correspondence, financial papers and box office statements dealing with his productions from 1954 until 1963. Some productions included are FESTIVAL, MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT and COME BLOW YOUR HORN.

Key Terms

Subjects

Theater -- Finance

Theater -- New York (State) -- New York

Theater -- Production and direction

Theatrical producers and directors

Names

Fried, Walter, 1906-1975