

The New York Public Library
Billy Rose Theatre Division

Guide to the

Christine Darmor papers

1936-1937

*T-Mss 1996-031

Summary

Creator: Darmor, Christine

Title: Christine Darmor papers

Date: 1936-1937

Size: 1 portfolio

Source: papers: gift, Clara Ann Simmons, 05/30/96

Abstract: Playwright Christine Darmor (pen name for Fauchette Weir), was born in France but came to the United States as the wife of World War I pilot, John B. Weir, and lived and wrote in New York City. Collection consists of four letters to Darmor and one clipping, all concerning her play, PEACE EVERYONE. The letters document the work of her agents at the Leland Hayward, Inc. agency.

Preferred citation: Christine Darmor papers, Billy Rose Theatre Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Playwright Christine Darmor (pen name for Fauchette Weir), was born in France but came to the United States as the wife of World War I pilot, John B. Weir, and lived and wrote in New York City.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of four letters to Darmor and one clipping, all concerning her play, PEACE EVERYONE. The letters document the work of her agents at the Leland Hayward, Inc. agency.

Key Terms

Subjects

Dramatists
Literary agents

Names

Darmor, Christine