

The New York Public Library
Billy Rose Theatre Division

Guide to the

Violet Strathmore ephemera

1917-1924

*T-Mss 2000-030

Summary

Creator: Strathmore, Violet

Title: Violet Strathmore ephemera

Date: 1917-1924

Size: .21 linear feet. (1 box)

Source: Gift, Rawlings, Eleanor, 09/07/2000

Abstract: Violet Strathmore (whose name was sometimes spelled "Violette"), was a stage actress active in musical comedy, especially from the era of the First World War into the 1920s. The collection consists of clippings and photographs devoted to the career of Violet Strathmore. Stage productions featuring Violet Strathmore described in clippings and depicted in photographs include ARTISTS AND MODELS OF 1924, HIS LITTLE WIDOWS (1917), AS YOU WERE (1920), and LADY GODIVA (n.d.).

Preferred citation: Violet Strathmore ephemera, Billy Rose Theatre Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Violet Strathmore (whose name was sometimes spelled "Violette"), was a stage actress active in musical comedy, especially from the era of the First World War into the 1920s.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of clippings and photographs devoted to the career of Violet Strathmore. Stage productions featuring Violet Strathmore described in clippings and depicted in photographs include ARTISTS AND MODELS OF 1924, HIS LITTLE WIDOWS (1917), AS YOU WERE (1920), and LADY GODIVA (n.d.).

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Clippings

Photographs

Subjects

Musical theater -- New York (State)

Names

Strathmore, Violet