

The New York Public Library
Billy Rose Theatre Division

Guide to the

Tommy Hyde papers

1922-1940

*T-Mss 1940-003

Summary

Creator: Hyde, Tommy

Title: Tommy Hyde papers

Date: 1922-1940

Size: .1 linear feet (1 portfolio), 40 cm

Source: Gift, Hyde, Mrs. Thomas, 04/30/1940

Abstract: Tommy Hyde (d. 1940) was a dancer and songwriter, and also managed a troupe of performers who toured in vaudeville under the name the Honey Boys. The Tommy Hyde papers span 1922-1940, and consist primarily of correspondence to Tommy Hyde, condolence letters to his widow, Adelaide, following his death in March of 1940, three sheets of song lyrics (two of which were written by Mr. Hyde in collaboration with others, while the third is unattributed), contracts and a route sheet for the Honey Boys, receipts and membership cards related to Mr. Hyde's vaudeville career.

Preferred citation: Tommy Hyde papers, Billy Rose Theatre Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Tommy Hyde (d. 1940) was a dancer and songwriter, and also managed a troupe of performers who toured in vaudeville under the name the Honey Boys.

Scope and Content Note

The Tommy Hyde papers span 1922-1940, and consist primarily of correspondence to Tommy Hyde, condolence letters to his widow, Adelaide, following his death in March of 1940, three sheets of song lyrics (two of which were written by Mr. Hyde in collaboration with others, while the third is unattributed), contracts and a route sheet for the Honey Boys, receipts and membership cards related to Mr. Hyde's vaudeville career.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Contracts

Correspondence

Subjects

Vaudeville -- United States

Names

Hyde, Tommy

Honey Boys