

The New York Public Library
Billy Rose Theatre Division

Guide to the

Leo Lucker papers

1956-1959

*T-Mss 2001-033

Summary

Creator: Lucker, Leo, 1912-1977

Title: Leo Lucker papers

Date: 1956-1959

Size: .1 linear feet. (1 portfolio)

Abstract: Leo Lucker was an actor whose credits included the plays SEASON OF CHOICE and NINA. Born in Chicago, Leo Lucker attended Northwestern University and later taught drama at Georgia State College. He toured with the Lunts in I KNOW MY LOVE, with Sylvia Sidney in AUNTIE MAME, and with Shirley Booth in NINA, appeared with Ed Begley and Paul Muni in INHERIT THE WIND, and in productions of CAROUSEL, THE FOURPOSTER, and NIGHT OF THE IGUANA. Leo Lucker died in New York City in February 1977 at the age of 64. The Leo Lucker papers consist primarily of opening night telegrams and copies of contracts for two plays in which Leo Lucker appeared, SEASON OF CHOICE and NINA.

Preferred citation: Leo Lucker papers, Billy Rose Theatre Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Leo Lucker was an actor whose credits included the plays SEASON OF CHOICE and NINA. Born in Chicago, Leo Lucker attended Northwestern University and later taught drama at Georgia State College. He toured with the Lunts in I KNOW MY LOVE, with Sylvia Sidney in AUNTIE MAME, and with Shirley Booth in NINA, appeared with Ed Begley and Paul Muni in INHERIT THE WIND, and in productions of CAROUSEL, THE FOURPOSTER, and NIGHT OF THE IGUANA. Leo Lucker died in New York City in February 1977 at the age of 64.

Scope and Content Note

The Leo Lucker papers consist primarily of opening night telegrams and copies of contracts for two plays in which Leo Lucker appeared, SEASON OF CHOICE and NINA.

Key Terms

Subjects

Actors -- United States

Theater -- United States

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Contracts

Names

Lucker, Leo, 1912-1977

Lucker, Leo