Summary

Creator: Alexander, James

Title: Dr. James Alexander manuscript material

Date: 1823

Size: 1 item

Abstract: Dr. James Alexander, English physician in Genoa. In 1823 he prescribed for Byron, and advised him on some warts. To Lord Byron, poet: 1 autograph letter signed: [June 1823] : (B'ANA 0397) : [from Genoa]; regretting that he has so far failed in his "medical negotiation," but hoping that an old physician of his acquaintance can help. With a [much later] note in the hand of Teresa Guiccioli on the final page: "Quand Lord Byron cherchait un medicin pour l'amener en Grece."

Access: Restricted access.

Preferred citation: Dr. James Alexander manuscript material : 1 item, Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Dr. James Alexander, English physician in Genoa. In 1823 he prescribed for Byron, and advised him on some warts.

Scope and Content Note

To Lord Byron, poet: 1 autograph letter signed: [June 1823] : (B'ANA 0397) : [from Genoa]; regretting that he has so far failed in his "medical negotiation," but hoping that an old physician of his acquaintance can help. With a [much later] note in the hand of Teresa Guiccioli on the final page: "Quand Lord Byron cherchait un medicin pour l'amener en Grece."
Key Terms

Titles
Alexander, James, Dr. : manuscript material

Subjects
Physicians -- Italy -- 19th century -- Correspondence

Names
Alexander, James
Byron, George Gordon Byron, Baron, 1788-1824
Byron, George Gordon Byron, Baron, 1788-1824
Guiccioli, Teresa, contessa di, 1800-1873