

The New York Public Library
Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle

Guide to the

James Monroe manuscript material

1804

Pforz MS

Summary

Creator: Monroe, James, 1758-1831

Title: James Monroe manuscript material

Date: 1804

Size: 1 item

Abstract: James Monroe, fifth President of the United States. In 1804 he was serving as U.S. minister to France, Spain and England. To Andrew James Cochrane-Johnstone, British politician and fraudster : 1 autograph letter signed : 2 Jan 1804 : (MISC 0337) : from Wimpole Street : begins, "I have rec'd with clear sensibility yr. obliging letter of yesterday. In undertaking the late interesting affair in yr. behalf with the govt. of France the only satisfaction wch I contemplated was that which wld naturally arise from the hope of being able to render an acceptable & useful service to a gentleman of distinction & merit ...".

Access: Restricted access.

Preferred citation: James Monroe manuscript material : 1 item, Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle, The New York Public Library

Creator History

James Monroe, fifth President of the United States. In 1804 he was serving as U.S. minister to France, Spain and England.

Scope and Content Note

To Andrew James Cochrane-Johnstone, British politician and fraudster : 1 autograph letter signed : 2 Jan 1804 : (MISC 0337) : from Wimpole Street : begins, "I have rec'd with clear sensibility yr. obliging letter of yesterday. In undertaking the late interesting affair in yr. behalf with the govt. of France the only satisfaction wch I contemplated was that which wld naturally arise from the hope of being able to render an acceptable & useful service to a gentleman of distinction & merit ...".

Key Terms

Subjects

Foreign ministers -- United States -- 19th century -- Correspondence
Presidents -- United States -- 19th century -- Correspondence

Titles

Monroe, James : manuscript material

Names

Monroe, James, 1758-1831
Johnstone, Andrew James Cochrane, 1767-