

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Clyde Fitch papers

1887-1904

MssCol 1014

Summary

Creator: Fitch, Clyde, 1865-1909

Title: Clyde Fitch papers

Date: 1887-1904

Size: .3 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Purchase, American Autograph Shop; Wormser, 1937

Abstract: Clyde Fitch (1865-1909) was an American playwright. Collection consists of Fitch's letters, written mostly from New York City to DeWitt Miller, relating to personal matters, and to literary and dramatic work. Also, manuscript of Fitch's play "The Girl and the Judge" with program from a performance of the play at the Lyceum Theatre, 1901.

Access: Advance notice required.

Alternative Form Available: Letters, 1890-1904, available on microfilm; New York Public Library

Preferred citation: Clyde Fitch papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Clyde Fitch (1865-1909) was an American playwright.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of Fitch's letters, written mostly from New York City to DeWitt Miller, relating to personal matters, and to literary and dramatic work. Also, manuscript of Fitch's play "The Girl and the Judge" with program from a performance of the play at the Lyceum Theatre, 1901.

Key Terms

Subjects

American drama

Theater -- New York (State) -- New York

Occupations

Dramatists

Names

Fitch, Clyde, 1865-1909

Miller, Dewitt, 1857-1911