

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Chancery register of the French Consulate in the United States

1784-1795

MssCol 1057

Summary

Creator: France. Consulat (New York, N.Y.)

Title: Chancery register of the French Consulate in the United States

Date: 1784-1795

Size: .15 linear feet (1 volume)

Abstract: Register of the chancery of the consulate of France in the United States in New York City, which had jurisdiction in the states of New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut, with entries dated July 26, 1784-March 4, 1795. The first consul was St. Jean de Crèvecoeur, whose signature last appears on May 10, 1785. Besides cases related to shipping, customs duties, obligations, and agreements made at the consulate, there are references to Edmond Genet on pages 136, 142-143, 239, 324, and elsewhere

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Chancery register of the French Consulate in the United States, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Subjects

Diplomatic and consular service, French -- United States

Export duties -- France

Export duties -- United States

Shipping -- France -- History -- 18th century

Shipping -- United States -- History -- 18th century

Tariff -- France

Tariff -- United States

Geographic Names

France -- Foreign relations -- United States

United States -- Foreign relations -- France

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Registers (lists)

Names

France. Consulat (New York, N.Y.)

Genet, Edmond Charles, 1763-1834

St. John de Crèvecoeur, J. Hector, 1735-1813