

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Records of the British Surveyor of Ordnance

1642-1767

MssCol 1075

Summary

Creator: Great Britain. Board of Ordnance

Title: Records of the British Surveyor of Ordnance

Date: 1642-1767

Size: .4 linear feet (4 volumes)

Abstract: Records of the British Surveyor of Ordnance, including some created by Sir Charles Frederick, who was Surveyor from 1750 through 1782. Consist of records and letters concerning the military establishment and its equipment in Europe and America, 1642-1767; precedents, etc. for firing guns on triumphal and other public occasions, 1683-1759; allowances and wages in the military and civil service of the ordnance of England, 1759-1764; and letters by and to Sir Charles Frederick, 1761-1767

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Records of the British Surveyor of Ordnance, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Subjects

Civil service -- Great Britain -- History -- 17th century

Civil service -- Great Britain -- History -- 18th century

Civil service -- Great Britain -- Management

Military ceremonies, honors, and salutes -- Great Britain

Geographic Names

Great Britain -- Armed Forces -- Ordnance and ordnance stores -- History -- 17th century

Great Britain -- Armed Forces -- Ordnance and ordnance stores -- History -- 18th century

Names

Great Britain. Board of Ordnance

Frederick, Charles, Sir, 1709-1785