

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Rodman Gilder papers

1895-1953

MssCol 1156

Summary

Creator: Gilder, Rodman, 1877-1953

Title: Rodman Gilder papers

Date: 1895-1953

Size: .7 linear feet (2 boxes)

Source: Gift, Gilder, Mrs. Rodman (L. Comfort); Rosamund Gilder, 1955

Abstract: Rodman Gilder (1877-1953) was an American editor and author. He was editor of Criterion and Credit Monthly and wrote on various subjects. The best known of his literary works is The Battery New York, a History (1935). He was also the archivist of Century Associates. Collection consists of notes and sources for Gilder's writings, papers relating to the history and business operations of the Century Company between 1913 and 1914, and some personal papers. Materials for Gilder's writings include correspondence, typescripts of articles, and research notes for biographies of Don Marquis and Joan of Arc. Century Company papers contain copies of memoranda and letters, circulation analyses for the Century and St. Nicholas magazines, financial records, by-laws, published histories, catalog of publications for 1913, two posters illustrated by Maxfield Parrish and Henry McCarter, and printed matter. Gilder's personal papers include some correspondence, memorabilia and photograph of his father, Richard Watson Gilder.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Rodman Gilder papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Rodman Gilder (1877-1953) was an American editor and author. He was editor of Criterion and Credit Monthly and wrote on various subjects. The best known of his literary works is The Battery New York, a History (1935). He was also the archivist of Century Associates.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of notes and sources for Gilder's writings, papers relating to the history and business operations of the Century Company between 1913 and 1914, and some personal papers. Materials for Gilder's writings include correspondence, typescripts of articles, and research notes for biographies of Don Marquis and Joan of Arc. Century Company papers contain copies of memoranda and letters, circulation analyses for the Century and St. Nicholas magazines, financial records, by-laws, published histories, catalog of publications for 1913, two posters illustrated by Maxfield Parrish and Henry McCarter, and printed matter. Gilder's personal papers include some correspondence, memorabilia and photograph of his father, Richard Watson Gilder.

Key Terms

Occupations

Authors

Editors

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Photographic prints

Posters

Subjects

Publishers and publishing -- New York (State) -- New York

Names

Gilder, Rodman, 1877-1953

Gilder, Richard Watson, 1844-1909

Joan, of Arc, Saint, 1412-1431

Marquis, Don, 1878-1937

McCarter, Henry, 1866-1942

Parrish, Maxfield, 1870-1966

Century Company