Title: Simon Gratz collection of letters of American physicians and surgeons

Date: 1756-1880

Size: .21 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Donated by Simon Gratz, 1919

Abstract: Simon Gratz (1840-1925) was an American lawyer and philanthropist of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Simon Gratz collection of letters of prominent American physicians and surgeons comprises sixty autograph items, chiefly letters. Each name is represented by one item; an additional autograph item written by Samuel Bard is not found. Prominent letter writers include Jacob Bigelow, Silvester Gardiner, David Hosack, and Samuel L. Mitchill. Recipients are chiefly persons in the medical field, but clergymen, scientists and other professions are also represented. Among them are James H. Armsby, Amos Eaton, Jedidiah Morse, and William H. Seward. Autograph items include several death certificates, and part of a medical work by Edward Miller (1760-1812).

Access: Advance notice required.

Alternative Form Available: Letters written by Bigelow, Gardiner, Hosack and Mitchill are published in "Letters of American Physicians and Surgeons," Bulletin of The New York Public Library 23, no. 9 (September 1919): 547-554.
