Summary

Creator: Lady Penrhyn (Ship)

Title: Lady Penrhyn logbook

Date: 1789-1791

Size: .21 linear feet (1 volume)

Abstract: The author of this logbook and diary is unknown; it was possibly kept by either Daniel Osborne or Holbrook Gaskell. It describes a journey from Kilkenny, Scotland to Liverpool, England, thence on board the Lady Penrhyn to Philadelphia via Madeira, thence a return to Liverpool. Entries give the costs of travel, lists of supplies for the voyage, descriptions of weather conditions and places visited, lists of imports and exports of Philadelphia and Liverpool from 1785-1792, taxes of France and England, and other matters

Access: Advance notice required.
