

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Orderly book of the New York Regiment of Horse Artillery

1815-1826

MssCol NYGB 18221

Summary

Creator: New York (State). Militia, Regiment, 1st

Title: Orderly book of the New York Regiment of Horse Artillery

Date: 1815-1826

Size: .75 linear feet (1 folder)

Abstract: The development of state militias stemmed from the passage of the first and second Militia Acts of 1792, drafted by George Washington and his Secretary of War, Henry Knox. New York boasted the largest state military force in the nation. Under the General Orders of 15 March 1826, the 1st Brigade of Horse Artillery and the 6th Brigade of Artillery were organized as the First Division of New York State Artillery. As the country was not at war during the era these documents were maintained, the activities of the First Regiment of Horse Artillery were largely ceremonial. The two orderly books in this collection, probably belonging to Edward Frederick Arcularius, contain the orders of the First Regiment New York Horse Militia, 1815 - 1826. Also includes copied correspondence between officers, including Captain Cornelius Button, Captain Robert Cary, Colonel Henry A. Arcularius, Brigadier Major Henry Brevoort, Brigadier General James Benedict, Brigadier General Jacob Odell, and New York State Governor Dewitt Clinton. Includes details of drills, parades, meetings, and courts martial.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: New York State Horse Militia, 1st Regiment, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

The development of state militias stemmed from the passage of the first and second Militia Acts of 1792, drafted by George Washington and his Secretary of War, Henry Knox. New York boasted the largest state military force in the nation. Under the General Orders of 15 March 1826, the 1st Brigade of Horse Artillery and the 6th Brigade of Artillery were organized as the First Division of New York State Artillery. As the country was not at war during the era these documents were maintained, the activities of the First Regiment of Horse Artillery were largely ceremonial.

Custodial History

Presented to the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society by Boyce Daniell, Jr., 1979.

Scope and Content Note

The two orderly books in this collection, probably belonging to Edward Frederick Arcularius, contain the orders of the First Regiment New York Horse Militia, 1815 - 1826. Also includes copied correspondence between officers, including Captain Cornelius Button, Captain Robert Cary, Colonel Henry A. Arcularius, Brigadier Major Henry Brevoort, Brigadier General James Benedict, Brigadier General Jacob Odell, and New York State Governor Dewitt Clinton. Includes details of drills, parades, meetings, and courts martial.

Key Terms

Titles

Gift of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, 2008

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Military records

Orderly books

Names

New York (State). Militia, Regiment, 1st

Arcularius, Edward Frederick, 1803-1867

Arcularius, Henry, b. 1781

New York (State). Militia

New York Genealogical and Biographical Society Collection