

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Albert Mayer papers

1946-1955

MssCol 1921

Summary

Creator: Mayer, Albert

Title: Albert Mayer papers

Date: 1946-1955

Size: .5 linear feet (2 boxes)

Source: Gift, Mayer, Albert, 1960

Abstract: Albert Mayer (1897-) was an American architect, city planner and engineer. He was appointed planning advisor to the government of Uttar Pradesh, India, in 1947 to study rural development in the region. Collection consists of correspondence, reports, programs, and other papers relating to "pilot intensive projects" at Etawah and elsewhere in the state of Uttar Pradesh, India, collected by Mayer, originator and principal consultant on the project. Papers were used as source material for Mayer's 1958 book Pilot Project, India.

Access: Advance notice required.

Alternative Form Available: Entire collection available on microfilm; New York Public Library

Preferred citation: Albert Mayer papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Albert Mayer (1897-) was an American architect, city planner and engineer. He was appointed planning advisor to the government of Uttar Pradesh, India, in 1947 to study rural development in the region.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of correspondence, reports, programs, and other papers relating to "pilot intensive projects" at Etawah and elsewhere in the state of Uttar Pradesh, India, collected by Mayer, originator and principal consultant on the project. Papers were used as source material for Mayer's 1958 book

Pilot Project, India.

Key Terms

Occupations

Architects
City planners

Titles

Etawa papers

Subjects

Planning -- India -- Uttar Pradesh
Rural development -- India -- Uttar Pradesh

Geographic Names

Uttar Pradesh (India) -- Economic conditions

Names

Mayer, Albert