

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

An account of the late Negro insurrection which took place in the island of Barbados on Easter Sunday

April 14, 1816

MssCol 2483

Summary

Title: An account of the late Negro insurrection which took place in the island of Barbados on Easter Sunday

Date: April 14, 1816

Size: .21 linear feet (1 volume)

Abstract: "An account of the late Negro insurrection which took place in the island of Barbados on Easter Sunday, April 14, 1816" comprises material from private letters and Barbados newspapers giving accounts of losses with names of owners of estates and Sir James Leith's proclamation denying that an order had been sent to the islands for the freeing of the slaves. Includes one color drawing. Bound together with John Poyer's 1808 publication, "The history of Barbados, from the first discovery of the island, in the year 1605, till the accession of Lord Seaforth, 1801."

Access: Advance notice required.

Alternative Form Available: Available on microfilm; New York Public Library; *ZL-411

Preferred citation: An account of the late Negro insurrection which took place in the island of Barbados on Easter Sunday, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library