

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research correspondence

1933-1940 [bulk 1938-1940]

MssCol 2593

Summary

Creator: Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research

Title: Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research correspondence

Date: 1933-1940 [bulk 1938-1940]

Size: .2 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Gift, Emergency Committee in Aid of Displaced Foreign Scholars, 1946

Abstract: The Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research was founded in 1901 in New York City by John D. Rockefeller for the advancement of medical research. Collection consists of correspondence of P.A. Levene of the Institute with displaced foreign physicians and chemists. Levene was a chemist who was a member of the Institute from 1907 to 1939. The foreign physicians and chemists sought to emigrate to the U.S. from Europe and especially Germany because they were of Jewish descent. Other correspondence is with referees and refugee aid organizations.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research correspondence, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

The Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research was founded in 1901 in New York City by John D. Rockefeller for the advancement of medical research.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of correspondence of P.A. Levene of the Institute with displaced foreign physicians and chemists. Levene was a chemist who was a member of the Institute from 1907 to 1939. The foreign physicians and chemists sought to emigrate to the U.S. from Europe and especially Germany because they were of Jewish descent. Other correspondence is with referees and refugee aid organizations.

Key Terms

Subjects

Chemists

International relief

Jewish physicians

Jewish refugees -- United States

Jews -- Germany -- History -- 1933-1945

World War, 1939-1945 -- Refugees

Geographic Names

Germany -- Emigration and immigration -- History -- 1933-1945

United States -- Emigration and immigration

Names

Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research

Levene, P. A. (Phoebus Aaron), 1869-1940