

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Russian Artillery Commission of North America records

1917

MssCol 2652

Summary

Creator: Russian Artillery Commission of North America

Title: Russian Artillery Commission of North America records

Date: 1917

Size: .3 linear feet (1 v.)

Source: Gift, Brazol, Boris, 1930

Abstract: Collection consists of typed transcripts of records of the investigation made by Lieut. Boris Brazol of the Russian Supply Committee of the Russian Artillery Commission into allegations that an official of the commission had engaged in espionage and treason against the Russian government with agents of the Central Powers in New York. Includes copies of reports of verbal examinations made by Brazol and other documents relating to the investigation.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Russian Artillery Commission of North America records, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Language of the Material: Transcripts in Russian and English

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of typed transcripts of records of the investigation made by Lieut. Boris Brazol of the Russian Supply Committee of the Russian Artillery Commission into allegations that an official of the commission had engaged in espionage and treason against the Russian government with agents of the Central Powers in New York. Includes copies of reports of verbal examinations made by Brazol and other documents relating to the investigation.

Key Terms

Subjects

Espionage

World War, 1914-1918 -- Equipment and supplies

Geographic Names

Soviet Union -- History -- Revolution, 1917-1921

Names

Russian Artillery Commission of North America

Brasol, Boris, 1885-