

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Joseph Bickerton papers

1909-1917

Summary

Creator: Bickerton, Joseph P., 1878-1936

Title: Joseph Bickerton papers

Date: 1909-1917

Size: .08 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Transfer, Theater Division

Abstract: Joseph P. Bickerton, Jr. (1878-1936), an attorney in New York City who specialized in theatrical cases, served as an arbiter of disputes between members of the Dramatists Guild of America and producers. He also helped to produce Broadway shows. Collection consists of correspondence, theater reviews, publicity articles, and financial papers of Bickerton. Correspondence relates to real estate matters in Massachusetts and Long Island, New York. Theatre materials include notices of production and publicity articles. Also, canceled stock shares.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Joseph Bickerton papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Joseph P. Bickerton, Jr. (1878-1936), an attorney in New York City who specialized in theatrical cases, served as an arbiter of disputes between members of the Dramatists Guild of America and producers. He also helped to produce Broadway shows.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of correspondence, theater reviews, publicity articles, and financial papers of Bickerton. Correspondence relates to real estate matters in Massachusetts and Long Island, New York. Theatre materials include notices of production and publicity articles. Also, canceled stock shares.

Key Terms

Occupations

Producers

Subjects

Real property -- Massachusetts

Real property -- New York (State) -- Long Island

Theater -- United States

Names

Bickerton, Joseph P., 1878-1936

Freefield, William H

Grapewin, Charles, 1869-1956