

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Catalog of Duke of Veragua collection of Columbus papers

1894-1929

MssCol 3155

Summary

Creator: Veragua, duque de

Title: Catalog of Duke of Veragua collection of Columbus papers

Date: 1894-1929

Size: .3 linear feet (1 v.)

Source: Gift, Veragua, Duke of (via Louis Windmuller), 1894

Abstract: The Duke of Veragua was a descendant of Christopher Columbus. Collection consists of volume of 46 citations, in Spanish, for individual and grouped letters and documents, 1488-1929, pertaining to Columbus. Also included in the volume are clippings of articles about the Duke and the documents; and the Duke's letter, 1894, in French, transmitting the catalog to the Lenox Library. The documents were on display at the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago and were then sold to the government of Spain.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Catalog of Duke of Veragua collection of Columbus papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

The Duke of Veragua was a descendant of Christopher Columbus.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of volume of 46 citations, in Spanish, for individual and grouped letters and documents, 1488-1929, pertaining to Columbus. Also included in the volume are clippings of articles about the Duke and the documents; and the Duke's letter, 1894, in French, transmitting the catalog to the Lenox Library. The documents were on display at the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago and were then sold to the government of Spain.

Key Terms

Names

Veragua, duque de
Columbus, Christopher