

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Missionary lectures on New Zealand, Turkey, Egypt, Arabia, Russia, and other countries and cultures

1854-1856

MssCol 339

Summary

Creator: Booth, Thomas, d. 1860

Title: Missionary lectures on New Zealand, Turkey, Egypt, Arabia, Russia, and other countries and cultures

Date: 1854-1856

Size: .21 linear feet (1 volume)

Abstract: This manuscript volume contains lectures dated April 20, 1854 through February 21, 1856. These lectures were delivered by "the Rev. Thomas Booth LL.D. the first incumbent of Biggin near Hartington Derbyshire who died 24th January 1860." Although the lectures are described as "missionary lectures," only a few refer at any length to missionary activity in the regions described. The lectures describe the history, culture, inhabitants, religion, climate, geography, government, and other aspects of the following areas: New Zealand, the Turkish Empire, Jerusalem, Egypt, Arabia, the Crimea and Sebastopol, and Russia. Included are sections on the life of Mohammed and prophecies concerning Ishmael

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Missionary lectures on New Zealand, Turkey, Egypt, Arabia, Russia, and other countries and cultures, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Geographic Names

Arabian Peninsula -- Description and travel
Arabian Peninsula -- Religious life and customs
Egypt -- Description and travel
Egypt -- Religious life and customs
New Zealand -- Description and travel
Russia -- Description and travel
Russia -- Religious life and customs
Turkey -- Description and travel

Turkey -- Religious life and customs

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Lecture notes

Subjects

Missionaries -- Great Britain -- 19th century

Names

Booth, Thomas, d. 1860

Ishmael (Biblical figure)

Muh_ammad, Prophet, -632