

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Sabine Baring-Gould letters

1897-1901

Summary

Creator: Baring-Gould, S. (Sabine), 1834-1924

Title: Sabine Baring-Gould letters

Date: 1897-1901

Size: .08 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Gift?, Goadby, Arthur, 1951

Abstract: Sabine Baring-Gould (1834-1924) was an English author and clergyman. A prolific writer, his published works included religious works, travel narratives, novels, verse, biography, and amateur antiquarian studies. He is probably best known for writing the hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers.". Collection includes letters from Baring-Gould to F. Bligh Bond concerning details of church architecture and construction in English rural churches in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Some of the letters are illustrated.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Sabine Baring-Gould letters, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Sabine Baring-Gould (1834-1924) was an English author and clergyman. A prolific writer, his published works included religious works, travel narratives, novels, verse, biography, and amateur antiquarian studies. He is probably best known for writing the hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers.".

Scope and Content Note

Collection includes letters from Baring-Gould to F. Bligh Bond concerning details of church architecture and construction in English rural churches in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Some of the letters are illustrated.

Key Terms

Subjects

Church architecture -- England

Rural churches -- England

Occupations

Clergy

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Illustrated letters

Names

Baring-Gould, S. (Sabine), 1834-1924

Bond, Frederick Bligh, 1864-1945