

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Brooklyn Academy of Music records

1863-1886

MssCol 406

Summary

Creator: Brooklyn Academy of Music

Title: Brooklyn Academy of Music records

Date: 1863-1886

Size: .15 linear feet (1 v.)

Source: Gift (transfer from Ford Collection), Ford, Worthington and Paul, 1899

Abstract: The Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences was incorporated in 1859. The original Academy, located at 176-194 Montague Street in Brooklyn, New York, was destroyed by fire in 1903, and the new Academy was opened in 1908. Collection consists of letters and telegrams relating to the engagement of the Academy building for various performances; the collection also contains newspaper clippings and other papers.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Brooklyn Academy of Music records, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

The Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences was incorporated in 1859. The original Academy, located at 176-194 Montague Street in Brooklyn, New York, was destroyed by fire in 1903, and the new Academy was opened in 1908.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of letters and telegrams relating to the engagement of the Academy building for various performances; the collection also contains newspaper clippings and other papers.

Key Terms

Geographic Names

Brooklyn (New York, N.Y.) -- Social life and customs

Subjects

Conservatories of music -- New York (State) -- New York

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Scrapbooks

Names

Brooklyn Academy of Music