

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Virgil Maxcy papers

1801-1843

MssCol 4541

Compiled by Kate Jadwin, Pratt Institute, 2012, 2013

Summary

Creator: Maxcy, Virgil, 1785-1844

Title: Virgil Maxcy papers

Date: 1801-1843

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Gift of John Pierpont Morgan, 1899.

Abstract: Virgil Maxcy (1785-1844) was born in Attleboro, Massachusetts, graduated from Brown University in 1804, and became an attorney and politician in Maryland. The papers consist of a journal, correspondence, and an undated July Fourth oration. The journal was kept in 1802 while Maxcy was acting as a tutor for the Roberts family near Columbia, South Carolina, and contains discussions of social life, adolescent concerns, and accounts of [Baptist] Association meetings and other religious manifestations in South Carolina and Kentucky. Correspondence dates from 1815 and 1843 with the bulk dating between 1821 and 1843. Letters relate chiefly to professional matters, particularly pertaining to his duties as Solicitor of the Treasury, though a letter from his brother, Jonathan Maxcy, is present.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Virgil Maxcy papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Processing note: Compiled by Kate Jadwin, Pratt Institute, 2012, 2013

Creator History

Virgil Maxcy (1785-1844) was born in Attleboro, Massachusetts, graduated from Brown University in 1804, and became an attorney and politician in Maryland.

Custodial History

Originally received as part of the Ford collection.

Scope and Content Note

Virgil Maxcy (1785-1844) was born in Attleboro, Massachusetts, graduated from Brown University in 1804, and became an attorney and politician in Maryland. The papers consist of a journal, correspondence, and an undated July Fourth oration. The journal was kept in 1802 while Maxcy was acting as a tutor for the Roberts family near Columbia, South Carolina, and contains discussions of social life, adolescent concerns, and accounts of [Baptist] Association meetings and other religious manifestations in South Carolina and Kentucky. Correspondence dates from 1815 and 1843 with the bulk dating between 1821 and 1843. Letters relate chiefly to professional matters, particularly pertaining to his duties as Solicitor of the Treasury, though a letter from his brother, Jonathan Maxcy, is present.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Diaries
Speeches

Geographic Names

South Carolina -- Religious life and customs -- 19th century
South Carolina -- Social life and customs -- 19th century

Subjects

Statesmen -- Maryland
Statesmen -- United States -- Correspondence
Teenagers -- Diaries

Occupations

Statesmen -- United States -- 19th century

Names

Maxcy, Virgil, 1785-1844 -- Correspondence