

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Preliminary project: The future of New York through the system of submarine building invented by Jerome Wenmaekers

1874

MssCol 6279

Summary

Creator: Wenmaekers, Jerome

Title: Preliminary project: The future of New York through the system of submarine building invented by Jerome Wenmaekers

Date: 1874

Size: .1 linear feet

Abstract: Lithograph and accompanying letter (18 August 1874) of Jerome Wenmaekers explaining plans for a proposed system of quays, docks, railway, and vehicular tunnels running underneath the Hudson River and East River in New York. Titled by Wenmaekers "Preliminary project: The future of New York through the system of submarine building invented by Jerome Wenmaekers."

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: Preliminary project: The future of New York through the system of submarine building invented by Jerome Wenmaekers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms

Subjects

City planning -- New York (State) -- New York -- 19th century

Docks -- New York (State) -- New York

Subway tunnels -- New York (State) -- New York -- History

Transportation -- New York (State) -- New York Metropolitan Area -- Planning

Tunnels -- New York (State) -- New York

Geographic Names

East River (N.Y.)

Hudson River (N.Y. and N.J.)

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Lithographs

Names

Wenmaekers, Jerome

Wenmaekers, Jer