

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

White family papers

1776-1946

MssCol 6344

Summary

Creator: White family

Title: White family papers

Date: 1776-1946

Size: 1 folder (51 pieces)

Abstract: Correspondence of members of the White family, settlers of the town of Lancaster, New Hampshire, and of descendants who migrated to Cincinnati, Ohio, particularly William A. White, who was a travelling salesman in Kentucky and other states adjacent to Ohio during the 1860s and 1870s, including letters about the death of a young girl in a panic at Robinson's Opera House, Cincinnati, February 5, 1876. Among the papers is an inventory and appraisal of the estate of Capt. John White, late of Methuen, Massachusetts, October 1800.

Access: Advance notice required.

Preferred citation: White family papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Scope and Content Note

Correspondence of members of the White family, settlers of the town of Lancaster, New Hampshire, and of descendants who migrated to Cincinnati, Ohio, particularly William A. White, who was a travelling salesman in Kentucky and other states adjacent to Ohio during the 1860s and 1870s, including letters about the death of a young girl in a panic at Robinson's Opera House, Cincinnati, February 5, 1876. Among the papers is an inventory and appraisal of the estate of Capt. John White, late of Methuen, Massachusetts, October 1800.

Key Terms

Names

White family
Robinson's Opera House