Guide to the

Eric Siday papers

1890-1996

JPB 00-4

Processed by Pauline Fox in August 2000.

Summary

Creator: Siday, Eric

Title: Eric Siday papers

Date: 1890-1996

Size: 9 linear feet (20 boxes and 1 oversized folder)

Source: Received as a gift from the Eric and Edith Siday Foundation in 1996.

Abstract: Eric Siday, violinist and composer, was a leader in the field of mass communication during the 1950s and 1960s, as major radio and television stations enthusiastically embraced his packages of electronically treated musical sounds to identify their services and to promote specific products. His papers, music scores, and tapes in this collection document his application of music to the arena of marketing.

Access: Some collections held by the Dance, Music, Recorded Sound, and Theatre Divisions at the New York Public Library for the Performing Arts are held off-site and must be requested in advance. Please check the collection records in the NYPL's online catalog for detailed location information. For general guidance about requesting offsite materials, please consult:

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of five series. The first series, Business records contains 9 subseries: Recording sessions, Legal services of Linden and Deutsch, Advertising agencies, Broadcasting identification packages, Publicity, Siday's writings, Studio equipment, Inventions, and Other. The second series, Personal papers, contains four subseries: Certificates, Travel, Autobiographical essays, and Edith's condolences. The third series, Music Scores, contains seven subseries: Compositions and arrangements, Station identification, Compositions, Stations, Modern Plan, Product advertisements, and Ozalids. The fourth series contains photographs and negatives, including of Siday's wife, Edith Siday, who was a professional dancer. The fifth series contains oversized photographs, musical scores, business records, and one certificate. Companies for which Siday wrote musical material include: Wesson Oil, Birds Eye, Westinghouse, Folger's Coffee, Kool, Jello, Rinso, Sprite, Coca-Cola, Pall Mall, Old Spice, Maxwell House, Bufferin, Campbell's Soup, Dodge, Hills Brothers, Gulf, Schlitz, Newport Bridge, and Wrigley's Gum.

Arrangement: Original folder titles were maintained and folders were arranged alphabetically. The series reflect Siday's original organizational scheme.
