

The New York Public Library
New York Public Library Archives

Guide to the

Paul North Rice records

1938-1953

MssArc 5115

Summary

Creator: New York Public Library. Research Libraries. Director's Office

Title: Paul North Rice records

Date: 1938-1953

Size: .2 cubic foot

Abstract: Paul North Rice (1888-1967) began working at the New York Public Library in 1914 and held various positions including Chief of the Preparation Division from 1820 to 1927. After serving as Director of the New York University Libraries, he was Chief (Director) of the Reference Department at the New York Public Library from 1937 to 1953 and then Librarian of Wesleyan University from 1953 to 1956. Records consist of Rice's subject files from 1938 to 1953, including correspondence dealing with topics such as student use of the Library, defense measures during World War II, statistics, and personal matters. Some Rice materials are included in the records of James W. Henderson.

Access: Advance notice required.

Conditions Governing Use: All rights reserved. Permission to quote must be obtained in writing from the New York Public Library

Preferred citation: Paul North Rice records, New York Public Library Archives, The New York Public Library

Related Materials:

Creator History

Paul North Rice (1888-1967) began working at the New York Public Library in 1914 and held various positions including Chief of the Preparation Division from 1820 to 1927. After serving as Director of the New York University Libraries, he was Chief (Director) of the Reference Department at the New York Public Library from 1937 to 1953 and then Librarian of Wesleyan University from 1953 to 1956.

Scope and Content Note

Records consist of Rice's subject files from 1938 to 1953, including correspondence dealing with topics such as student use of the Library, defense measures during World War II, statistics, and personal matters. Some Rice materials are included in the records of James W. Henderson.

Key Terms

Subjects

Libraries -- New York (State) -- New York

Libraries and students

Reference services (Libraries)

Research libraries -- New York (State) -- New York

Research libraries -- Use studies

World War, 1939-1945 -- Libraries

Names

New York Public Library. Research Libraries. Director's Office

Rice, Paul North