Summary

Creator: Reisman, Leo, 1897-1961

Title: Leo Reisman collection of sound recordings [sound recording]

Date: 1932-1948

Source: Gift, Reisman-Jampolis, Jane, 06/--/89

Abstract: The Leo Reisman collection contains primarily private acetate disc recordings of Reisman's radio performances of the 1930's, as well as Reisman's personal collection of commercial 78 rpm discs. Included among the noncommercial recordings are extensive holdings of his Philip Morris Show and Schaefer's nine o'clock revue appearances. Less complete holdings for Lucky Strike's your hit parade are also included. The commercial disc collection is comprised mostly of Reisman's commercially released recordings, as well as a small number of other artists' recordings. All commercial discs have been assimilated into the general holdings of the archive, and can be located in the NYPL catalog.

Access: Access to original items by permission only. Some items may be available as service copies. Other items which need preservation work may require advance notification for use. Refer to item descriptions in individual catalog records for more information.

Conditions Governing Access:

Access to acetate discs restricted.

Conditions Governing Use: For permission to publish, contact the Curator, The Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound.

Creator History

Leo Reisman was a bandleader from 1916 into the 1950's, most prominently in the 1930's. During the 1930's Reisman led bands that played on radio shows such as Lucky Strike's Your Hit Parade (1937-1939), Philip Morris radio programs (1934-1937), and Schaefer Beer's Nine O'clock Revue (1937). Reisman continued to lead bands through the 1940's and into the 1950's, playing in hotel ballrooms in New York and Cincinnati. Reisman died in 1961.

Custodial History

Gift of Jane Reisman-Jampolis; June 1989.

Scope and Content Note

The Leo Reisman collection contains primarily private acetate disc recordings of Reisman's radio performances of the 1930's.
