Creator History

Jan Peerce (1904-1984) was a noted American tenor. He was born on Jun. 3, 1904 and died on Dec. 15, 1984 in New York. He was engaged as a singer at Radio City Music Hall in 1932, and made his operatic debut in Philadelphia as the Duke in Rigoletto on May 14, 1938. His Metropolitan Opera debut was on Nov. 29, 1941, as Alfredo in La traviata. In addition to opera, he also sang musical theater, most notably in Fiddler on the Roof, and Jewish religious and secular music. His final appearance at the Met was in 1968, and he retired in 1982.

Custodial History

Gift of the Jan Peerce Estate.

Christmas hymn
Lo, how a rose e'er blooming
Hark the Herald Angels Sing
Go tell it on the mountain
Carol of the bells
Wassail song
Deck The Halls
A Child's First Christmas
Faith
Oh come all ye faithful
The first Noel
Oh, little town of Bethlehem
O come, o come,
Emmanuel
Away in a manger
Silent Night
Joy to the World
It came upon a midnight clear
Angels We Have Heard On High
