Creator History

Abe Burrows (1910-1985) was a playwright, director and radio personality. Born in New York City, he began in radio as a writer for shows such as Texaco Star Theatre, Duffy's Tavern, and the Joan Davis Show. He hosted two of his own radio shows, The Abe Burrows Show (CBS, 1946-47) and Breakfast with Burrows (CBS, 1949). He often appeared as a guest on television shows such as PM East and the Dinah Shore Show.

Burrows started his entertainment career by performing satirical songs at Hollywood parties. These songs became the basis for his radio shows, where he would perform them along with witty commentary about the issues of the day. After radio, he became a prominent Broadway director. He also wrote the books for many successful shows, including Guys and Dolls and How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying.

Custodial History

The sound recordings in this collection were separated from the Billy Rose Theatre Division.

We're for love! I'll sing you a song
Tale of the three witches
Girl that I court in my mind
Hayride
My heart's darlin'
Maybe is a woman's word
Tis a wonderful thing in nature
Woman's work
Sure and it's great to be home
Trottin' to the fair
April face
