Guide to the

Clarke Taylor performing arts interviews [sound recording]

*L (Special) 91-12

Processed by Ed Scarcelle and RHA staff.

Summary

Creator: Taylor, Clarke

Title: Clarke Taylor performing arts interviews [sound recording]

Size: 156, sound cassettes; 156, sound cassettes

Source: Gift of Lynn Lane

Abstract: This collection contains taped interviews of celebrities by Clark Taylor. Many interviews were conducted in cafes and restaurants, and the background noise is sometimes quite loud. Clark Taylor often started taping in the middle of the conversation, so that the interviews appear to have the beginning cut off.

Access: Access to original items by permission only. Some items may be available as service copies. Other items which need preservation work may require advance notification for use. Refer to item descriptions in individual catalog records for more information.

Conditions Governing Access:

Users never directly handle sound recordings. Listening selections are transmitted through a playback system.

Conditions Governing Use: No copying of private, non-commercial material is allowed without the written permission of the proprietary rights holder. For further information contact the Curator, The Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound.

Creator History

Clarke Taylor was a freelance writer for performing arts periodicals including the Village Voice in the 1970's and 1980's.

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains taped interviews of celebrities by Clarke Taylor. Many interviews were conducted in cafes and restaurants, and the background noise is sometimes quite loud. Clarke Taylor often started taping in the middle of the conversation, so that the interviews appear to have the beginning cut off. The interviewees include many stage, film, and television personalities such as Jeff Bridges, Carol Burnett, Ellen Burstyn, Truman Capote, Sir John Gielgud, Sophia Loren, Susan Sarandon, Martin Scorsese and many others.

Arrangement: The collection is listed alphabetically by interviewee.
