Creator History

Paul Lovett, publisher of souvenir theatrical programs in New York City beginning in 1935, served with the Special Services branch of the U.S. Army during World War II. He was Entertainment Specialist in the Air Transport Command and directed the Airborne Theatre in Alaska. While in the Army he married Anne Gloria Dunetz in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada on July 4, 1944. Lovett also helped organize the Theatre of the Dance at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Clients for his program business, Dunetz & Lovett (which he ran with his brother-in-law) included Katharine Cornell, Helen Hayes, John Gielgud and Martha Graham. Lovett died of a stroke on June 23, 1959, aged 49.

Custodial History

The collection was donated to the Billy Rose Theatre Division by Phyllis Dunetz, the sister-in-law of Paul Lovett, in 1998 and 1999.

Container List

Series I: Personal Papers and Ephemera 1944-1959 (1 folder)

This series consists of marriage certificates (both religious and secular), army papers, marriage and obituary clippings, and a passenger list documenting a trip he and his wife took to Sweden in 1957.

b. 1 f. 1 Personal papers / Paul Lovett 1944-1957 (1 folder)

Marriage certificates (both religious and secular) and a clipping on his wedding [1944], army discharge papers [1945], the first class passenger list for the Swedish American line [August 1957] on which Lovett and his wife travelled and his obituary [1959].

Series II: Correspondence 1944-1967 (6 folders)

The correspondence consists of letters from Army personnel to or about Paul Lovett, as well as letters that are not war related. A small file of business correspondence, 1954-1955, of the Lovetts concerns the preparation of a guidebook and souvenir program for the American tour of the Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam. There are two personal letters to the Lovetts from the Irish playwright Padraic Colum, two letters from Katharine Cornell, a few letters from Lovett to his wife, Anne, and a few letters she received after his death.

b. 1 f. 2 Correspondence to Paul Lovett 1944-1945 (1 folder)

Letters of thanks or commendation from army personnel to or about Paul Lovett.

b. 1 f. 3 Correspondence / Padraic Colum 1957-1959 (1 folder)

Two letters the first to Paul Lovett and his wife Anne, the second to Anne alone after Paul's death, from the Irish playwright, Padraic Colum.

b. 1 f. 4 Correspondence / Katharine Cornell 1944, 1958 (1 folder)

b. 1 f. 5 Correspondence / Paul Lovett 1954-1955 (1 folder)

Professional correspondence of Paul and Anne Lovett concerning preparation of a guidebook and souvenir program for the American tour of the Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam.

b. 1 f. 6 Correspondence / Paul Lovett 1945 (1 folder)

Letters [1945 and n.d.] from Paul Lovett to his wife Anne.

b. 1 f. 7 Correspondence to Anne Lovett 1959-1967 (1 folder)

Letters to Anne Lovett and a certificate she received.

Series III: Scripts 1943, undated (8 folders)

Scripts by Lovett are mostly from the period of World War II. Includes a script from his Army radio show, Let's Linger; a Christmas program for soldiers; a memorial to Franklin Delano Roosevelt; and a script set in a displaced persons camp after the war. A couple of undated scripts have no apparent connection to the war. In one, Anfisa by Leonid Andreyev, Lovett served as a translator.
