Ping Chong archive.

Audio materials

356 audio recordings

The Ping Chong audio materials were separated from the Ping Chong archive, acquired by the Theatre Division. For information about the entire collection, please see the catalog record and finding aid for the papers.

The audio portion of the collection consists of recordings related to the career of Ping Chong, and his company, originally the Fiji Company, but re-named Ping Chong and Company. Items are mostly sound elements or effects, including many production, pre-production, or working recordings for works created, produced and/or directed by Ping Chong, as well as a few recordings of actual performances, rehearsals, or interviews. Some of the audio is from collaborations with other artists including Meredith Monk and Muna Tseng, among others.

Work titles represented in the collection include: After Sorrow, AM/AM: the articulated man, Angels of Swedenborg, Anna into nightlight, Astonishment and the twins, Brightness, Chinoiserie, Dëshima, Elephant memories, Fear and loathing in Gotham, Humboldt's current, I will not be sad in this world, Kind ness, Maraya: acts of nature in geological time, Nosferatu: a symphony of darkness, Nuit Blanche, OBON: tales of rain and moonlight, Pojagi, A Race, Rainer and the knife, Slut for art, Snow, and Undesirable elements, among others.

Note: Access to original items restricted; advance notification required of use.

Most items in the collection will need preservation prior to audition, due to their fragility and obsolescence.

Arrangement

Series Description

The following series are arranged by title of the work, sub-arranged in some cases by the part of the work, and within these series by title found on the item.

After sorrow

AFTER SORROW is an evening-length dance theater work composed of four solos performed by Muna Tseng. The first three pieces—L'Histoire Chinoise, Whispers of the Stone and 98.6: a convergence in 15 minutes—form a suite about loss and the obligations owed family and friends; the fourth piece After Sorrow (Viet Nam) is about the legacy of war.

After Sorrow is the third part of Ping Chong's East/West Series.
